Shattuck-St. Mary's School

MIDDLE SCHOOL SCIENCE TEACHER

Faribault, MN

START DATE: August 15, 2024

Founded in 1858, Shattuck-St. Mary's School (SSM) is an Episcopal, co-educational, college preparatory, independent boarding/day school serving 400 students in grades 6th-postgraduate from 37 states and over 30 countries. Set on a beautiful 250-acre campus south of Minneapolis/St. Paul in Minnesota, SSM offers a mix of traditional and progressive education. Our mission is: By cultivating creative and independent thinking, SSM fosters the transformation of its students to become citizens of integrity for an ever-changing world.

In support of its pursuit of academic and scholarly excellence, Shattuck-St. Mary's School is committed to creating a diverse community of students, faculty, and staff that is dedicated to the fundamental principles of equal opportunity treatment in education and employment regardless of age, color, disability, gender identity, national origin, political ideology, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or veteran status. The school encourages applications from individuals whose differing backgrounds, beliefs, ideas, and life experiences will further enrich the diversity of its educational community.

PURPOSE:

SSM is seeking a full-time Science Teacher beginning August 2024 who will teach Biology (Grade 9) and Middle School Science (Grades 6 & 7). We are looking for teachers who emphasize laboratory activities, hands-on learning, and inquiry-based instruction. In addition, we are seeking an individual with strong leadership skills who will work collaboratively with members of the science department. Candidates must love teaching middle school aged students and be happy in a small school where collaboration, connection, and community come first.

Shattuck St. Mary's School is a boarding/day school and faculty members are expected to be involved with both co-curricular activities and standard residential life duties involved with a residential school setting.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Candidate will have demonstrated experience instructing in a student-centered, innovative educational environment, be familiar with technology in the classroom, and be well-versed in the academic and developmental needs of students in middle school.
- Bachelor's Degree in relevant field; Master's Degree or relevant coursework preferred.
- Candidates should have at least 2-4 years' experience teaching; however, we will consider exceptional first-year teaching candidates.

HOW TO APPLY:

Shattuck-St. Mary's School has partnered with Dovetailed on this search. Interested candidates should email a cover letter (addressed to Director of Human Resources Erin Sellner), a resume, and a list of at least three professional references consolidated as a single PDF document to Alison Moore, Senior Recruiter at alison@dovetailedsourcing.com.
