- Serve in the school's residential program as a residential staff member or supporting the residential program as a day faculty with occasional weekend duty.
- Sponsor a co-curricular club during the school day for one semester.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Bachelor of Arts in Spanish or equivalent; a Master's degree is preferred.
- Experience working with high school students.
- Experience in a boarding school is preferred but not required.
- A commitment to culturally responsive teaching.
- Experience with Comprehensible Input, or willingness to learn and use CI techniques.
- Desire to be actively engaged in all aspects of a boarding school.

CHARACTERISTICS OF A SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATE:

- Teamwork, dependability, flexibility, willingness to listen and learn, problem-solving skills, and congeniality.
- A love for teaching high school students.
- Well developed interpersonal, written, and verbal communication skills, including the ability to communicate effectively with all constituents in a school environment: students, coworkers, and parents.
- Willingness to provide continual assessment of student progress and communicate academic performance through the use of reports and online grade books.
- Ongoing awareness of developments and research in the field and use of this knowledge to ensure relevant lessons and best practices.
- The flexibility to adjust teaching methods to suit different groups of learners.
- Experience analyzing the needs, strengths, and weaknesses of students and structuring lessons and assessments around them.
- Ability to regularly work flexible hours to support before and after school or weekend events.
